

Checklist for the researchgroup

The research process

- Strategic plan for the research group established (vision, goals, targets, to the critical factors)
- Systematic work on the infrastructure of the research process - the work must be based on systematic work with a methodological platform (method, model, database, biobank)
- Patient benefit / clinical relevance
- ELN implemented
- Systematic research documentation (server + styrdokument)

Academic environment

- Optimized composition of the research team for good research output
- A series of seminars, journal club / study group with the active participation of graduate students and postdocs
- Participation and presentations at conferences

Employees

- All authors verifies their bibliometry
- 90% completed developmental discussions